

Liebe 8er,

Jetzt habt Ihr endlich mal Zeit, Euch mit langweiliger, aber essentieller Grammatik auseinander zu setzen. Viel Spaß dabei, aber macht nicht gleich alles auf einmal!

Es wird Euch immer noch Zeit übrig bleiben. Lest mal ein Buch. Oder zwei oder zehn. Muss ja nicht Dürrenmatt oder Hesse sein. Ich empfehle Kästner und Lindgren, Grisham und Wouk und ganz besonders meinen Liebling Walter Moers.

Bleibt gesund, Dunkel

5 Word Order (Satzbau)

A Der englische Satzbau ist streng (und einfach). Die Reihenfolge ist immer:

Subjekt (wer oder was?) - Verb (essen, trinken usw) - Objekt (wen/wem oder was?)

Bsp Mr Hoppe drinks coffee. Jetzt ihr:

1 you - love - I 2 do - we - our homework 3 a text - the children - write 4 to the teacher - listen - we

B Nur die Worte always, usually, often, sometimes und never kommen zwischen S und V.

Bsp Ali often plays football. Jetzt ihr:

1 usually - his homework - does - Jack 2 drink - never - my parents - tea 3 books - read - my friends - never

C Manchmal kommt noch eine Ortsangabe und eine Zeitangabe. Im Englischen kommt immer erst der Ort.

Bsp My parents usually watch TV in the living-room in the evening. Jetzt ihr:

1 to the playground - go - the children - often - after break

2 eat - the Smiths - lunch - always - at 2 o'clock - in the kitchen

3 in the lessons - copy - we - sometimes - at school - texts

4 never - drinks - Ali - coffee - in the evenings - in the kitchen

D Diese Reihenfolge ändert sich nie. Das ist anders als im Deutschen.

Bsp Ich esse oft Eis, weil Eis lecker ist. Eis esse ich oft, denn Eis ist lecker. Oft esse ich Eis ...

Wie kompliziert! Auf englisch nicht:

I often eat ice-cream because ice-cream is yummy. So und nicht anders ist es richtig.

Versucht das mal in die richtige Reihenfolge zu bringen:

usually - plays - Ali - after school - football - in the park - but - sometimes - can't - he - play

because - he - first -at home - his homework - must do

6 Will-future (alle Verben)

- | | |
|--|---------------------------|
| - will und Infinitiv | I will go to bed early. |
| - Verneinung: will not (won't) und Infinitiv | We won't watch the movie. |
| - Fragen durch Satzstellung | Will you write a test? |
| | When will they be here? |

1 he - visit - me

2 I - not go - there

3 Ali - not play - football tomorrow

4 it - rain?

5 the test - not be - difficult

6 you - go - to the party?

7 when - that - happen?

8 Jim - be - at school tomorrow?

9 what - the weather - be - like tomorrow?

10 where - the children - play?

11 I - not do - that

12 the MSV - win the match?

13 I - not watch - the match

14 what - you - do tomorrow?

15 you - stay - at home?

16 I - be - at home

17 you - pass the test?

18 I - not fail

19 Alice - be - there 20 where - you - be?

7 to be allowed to - dürfen

Sätze mit to be allowed to werden genau so gebildet wie andere Sätze mit to be (sein) auch.

Present tense :

Aussagesatz: am / is / are Bsp You are allowed to go home.

Verneinter Satz: am / is / are not Bsp I'm not allowed to go out.

Frage durch veränderte Wortstellung : Bsp Is he allowed to come to the party?

Past tense: was / were statt am / is / are. Sonst alles gleich.

Will-future: will (verneint won't) und be. Ganz einfach.

Wie ihr seht bildet man die Sätze mit einer Form von to be, dann folgt immer allowed to und ein Infinitiv.

Bilde Sätze mit to be allowed to:

1 the children - stay up late yesterday

2 I - go to the disco after my 18th birthday

3 we - not - chew gum in room 220

4 students - never - fight with each other

5 Alice -not - go to the disco before her 18th birthday

6 Jim and Jo - not - have a sleepover last Saturday

7 you - watch the movie yesterday ?

8 what - you - do tomorrow?

To be able to - können

Es gibt zwar eine Vergangenheitsform von can, nämlich could , couldn't, aber in manchen Fällen muss man ausweichen. Ist aber kein Problem, man macht alles wie bei to be allowed to, also eine Form von to be plus able to plus Verb.

1 tomorrow – I – work all day

2 Ali – not score – a goal last Sunday

3 Jo – just – finish his homework

4 you – come to the party next Friday?

5 I – not – to be in time tomorrow

6 Jim – not speak clearly to have to - müssen

Sätze mit to have to werden gebildet wie andere Sätze mit to have auch.

Present tense:

Aussagesatz: have / has Bsp: You have to work hard. / Ali has to practice a lot.

Verneinter Satz: don't / doesn't have to Bsp You don't have to wait. / Jim doesn't have to get up early.

Fragesatz mit do/does ... have Bsp Do I have to eat that? What does Jim have to do?

Past tense: had statt have/has, didn't statt don't / doesn't, Fragen mit did statt do / does

Will-future: will/won't und have to
